

EDUCATION

With 30 individual school corporations, the North Central Indiana region provides public education to almost 68,000 students. After high school, North Central Indiana students have many choices of educational options.

Secondary Education

03-04

No. of School Corporations	30
Total Enrollment	67,892
SAT Scores	1002
Graduation Rate	91%
Grads to Higher Education	71.5%

Source: Indiana Department of Education

Higher Education Institutions 2004 - 2005

North Central Indiana:

	Total Enrollment	Degrees Awarded
Indiana University – Kokomo	2,680	448
Purdue School of Technology	208	n/a
Manchester College	1,075	224
Indiana Wesleyan – Kokomo	n/a	n/a
Ivy Tech State College – Kokomo	3,645	205
Ivy Tech State College – Logansport	1,037	48

Other Campus Locations in Region:

- Ivy Tech State College – Wabash
- Ivy Tech State College – Grissom

Coming Soon:

- Ivy Tech State College – Peru

Major College/Universities Nearby:

	2001-2002 Figures
Indiana University – main campus	45,432	8,223
Purdue University – main campus	44,820	8,649
Indiana U.-Purdue U.-Indianapolis	39,680	4,678
Ball State University	24,049	4,100
Indiana Wesleyan University	16,957	5,929
Indiana State University	15,857	1,962
Notre Dame	11,415	3,317
Butler University	8,195	910
University of Indianapolis	4,650	521
Ivy Tech State College – Indianapolis	20,340	791
Ivy Tech State College - Muncie	5,133	309

Source: Indiana Commission for Higher Education